

Entity Relationship Diagram

Group Members:-

i) Alshaklata Bhenukh

(230953166)

ii) Sachin V P

(230953202)

iii) Karthik Pai

(230953268)

2) Reduction of ERD

i) For Stadium table:-

- There exist only one to many relationship with Team table
- no extra attributes would be added

∴ Final table:-

Stadium(stadium-id, stadium-name, stadium-capacity, stadium-image, stadium-avg-attendance, stadium-city, stadium-year-built)

ii) For Team table:-

- There exist a many to one relation with Stadium, with Team having a total participation, include the primary key of Stadium (stadium-id) as a foreign key in Team
- There exist a many to one relation with Coach, with Team having a total participation, include the primary key of Coach (coach-id) as a foreign key in Team

∴ Final table:-

~~Coach~~ Team(team-id, coach-id, ~~player-id~~, stadium-id, team-name, team-prev-pts-titles, team-fans, team-badge, team-points, team-founded-year)

iii) For Coach Table:-

- There exist no many to one relationships, only one to many with Teams, no foreign key would be added

∴ Final table:-

Coach(coach-id, coach-first-name, coach-last-name, coach-age, coach-nationality, coach-prev-trophies, coach-experience)

Group Members:-

Aishwarya Brahmik (230983166)

Kaushik Pari (230983268)

Sachin V. P (230983202)

iv) For Player table:-

→ There exists a many-to-one relationship with Team table, Player having a total participation, add primary key of Team (team-id) as foreign key in Player

∴ Final table:-

Player(player-id, team-id, player-jersey-number, player-age, player-first-name, player-last-name, player-face-icon, player-position, player-nationality, player-birth-date, player-picked-foot)

v) For Event table:-

→ There exists a many-to-one relationship with Player table, Event having total participation, include primary key of Player (player-id) as foreign key

→ There exists a many-to-one relationship with Match table, Event having total participation, include primary key of Match (match-id) as foreign key

∴ Final table:-

Event(event-id, player-id, match-id, event-type, event-minute, event-is-own-goal)

vi) For Match table:-

→ There exists a many-to-one relationship with Team, Match having total participation, include primary key of Team (team-id) as foreign key

∴ Final table:-

Match(match-id, team-id, match-date, match-home-score, match-away-score, match-home-possession, match-away-possession)

Group Members:-

i) Alshabeta Bhavik (230953166)

ii) Sachin V. P (230953202)

iii) Kaurik Pai (230953268)

vii) For Player-Stats table (weak entity)

→ This is a weak entity table that depends on two strong entities:-
Player and Match

→ Include the primary keys of both the tables. The combination of both will be the primary key for this table.

∴ final Table:

Player-Stats (player-id, match-id, lineup-is-starter, lineup-position-played, stat-minutes-played, stat-goals, stat-assists, stat-shots, stat-shots-on-target)

Group Members:-

i) Ashabirata Bhavani (2309 93 166)

ii) Sachin V.P (2309 93 202)

iii) Karan Rai (2309 93 268)